Enjoy Great Food and Wonderful Relaxation in

AWARA ONSEN

Ah, bliss...

01 Awara Onsen

The ryokan inns in this hot spring town are known for their exquisite atmosphere and hospitality. Enjoy luxurious relaxation with a private open-air garden bath.

On August 8 and 9, Awara Onsen holds the Awara Yukake Festival to celebrate the natural blessings of the hot spring. Participants splash each other with warm water at this lively festival.

Many of the ryokan inns have lovely Japanese gardens, beautiful through all four seasons.

The open-air bath on the roof feels completely different during the day and at night.

02 Ashiyu Public Footbath

This free footbath, located at Awara Yunomachi Plaza by Awara-Yunomachi Station, is built from all hinoki cypress wood, and is fed by a natural hot spring.

Geisha Dress-Up Experience

Awara Onsen is known for its geisha culture, and visitors can be transformed with geisha outfits and makeup! Don't miss this rare opportunity for such a unique experience!

Awara Geisha

Experience traditional Japanese hospitality, led by experts certified in sake tastings.

Geisha Games

Enjoy playing traditional geisha games with an authentic geisha.

Make Your Own Hot Spring Egg

Sentopia Awara, a public bath facility, offers this unique experience: write your name or draw a picture on an egg, then put it in the hot spring and wait about 50 minutes, to enjoy an egg cooked to perfection. Sentopia Awara also offers Hot Spring Egg Fortune-Telling, a popular way to find out what's in store for your love life based on how your egg is cooked!

Make Your Own Local Sake Label

A local sake shop in Awara Onsen lets you customize the label to create a truly one-of-a-kind bottle of sake! Write or draw whatever you'd like on an Echizen Washi paper label, and stick it on a bottle of sake for a great, unique souvenir!

03 Sentpia Awara

A public hot spring bath perfect for day-trip visitors. Features two unique baths, including an open-air bath.

Refresh Body and Soul in Awara Onsen, One of the Hokuriku Region's Finest Hot Spring Towns.

Awara Onsen's hot springs were discovered in 1883, and in the years since, the town has come to be beloved by the people of Osaka and Kyoto in particular, as well as locals. With some 820,000 visitors annually, Awara Onsen is one of the leading hot spring towns in the Hokuriku region, and the finest in Fukui. With 74 different source springs, each ryokan inn in Awara Onsen has unique characteristics to its water, said to have various medicinal properties, for something new to enjoy every time you visit.

Sumptuous Cuisine

The Sea of Japan is just a fifteen-minute drive from Awara Onsen, making this town a great place to enjoy incredibly fresh seafood.

Echizen Gani Crab is a true winter-only treat, with a subtle sweetness when freshly boiled. It is a delicacy that can be found only in Fukui.

Female snow crabs, known locally as Seiko Gani Crabs, are also a delight! Enjoy the unique textures and great flavors of their delicious eggs.

Okami is a variety of sake only available for sale in Awara Onsen. The women who run the town's ryokan inns were involved in every step, from growing the rice and preparing it for the brewing process, to deciding the flavor profile and designing the label.

Exceptional Seasonal Seafood Dishes All Year Round.

Awara, and the Hokuriku region as a whole, enjoys the finest foods from both land and sea, all throughout the year. Even so, winter is a particular highlight, bringing Echizen Gani Crab — snow crab so prized for its incredible flavor that it is even offered as a gift to the emperor. The sake produced by the women who run these ryokan inns brings out the best of these dishes.

05 Lake Kitagata Park

In spring, the park fills with cherry blossoms, creating a beautiful contrast between the pink of the blossoms and the bright red of the Iris Bridge.

07 Awara Lake Kitagata Iris Garden

This garden boasts some 200,000 irises across 300 different varieties. The Lake Kitagata Iris Festival is held here from early to mid June each year.

The road from JR Awaraonsen Station to the hot spring town of Awara Onsen features stretch roughly 150 meters long lined with American sweetgum trees. Enjoy the changing colors with the seasons, with the fresh greenery of spring and the brilliant red of autumn.

06 Mt. Shigitani Pass

In order to make their way to what was once the holy city where Yoshizaki Gobo Temple was located, the villagers cleared this pass through the mountains by hand, over the course of just three months. Even in summer, this road through the mountains remains pleasantly cool.

Mystical Former Quarry

Take a 30-minute walk through a pathway surrounded by nature, leading to a former quarry site filled with a mystical atmosphere! (Closed between December and February)

08 Yoshizaki Gobo Temple Remains

Yoshizaki Gobo Temple served as a missionary base in the Hokuriku region for the Buddhist priest Rennyo, who helped to revive the Jodo Shinshu school of Buddhism. Today, the site features a statue of Rennyo and the remains of the Hondo main hall, with a peaceful, solemn atmosphere. The cherry blossoms fill the area with beautiful pink every spring, and the area offers spectacular views of Lake Kitagata and the Sea of Japan year-round.

The Kanazu Festival, held every July, features three giant floats, children's dances, and taiko drumming throughout town. The Honjin Kazarimono, scenes and figures made of everyday items, are a particular highlight of the festival.

The Awara Onsen Spring Festival is dedicated to the deity of Yakushi Shrine, who watches over the hot spring. Three floats — each featuring a giant figure, cherry blossoms, and taiko drumming — are paraded around town, into the evening.

10 Genkuro Fujino Memorial Hall

Genkuro Fujino was a professor at a medical school, born in Awara City; as a professor, he provided enthusiastic instruction to Lu Xun, a student from China, treating him without prejudice like any of his other students. Lu Xun was deeply moved by this gesture, and is said to have revered Fujino for the rest of his days as his "lifelong mentor." At the Genkuro Fujino Memorial Hall, visitors can see books, medical instruments, letters, and other items on display.

Step Back in Time with Historic Destinations and Local Festivals.

Awara City is home to Yoshizaki Gobo, an area with ties to the historic Buddhist priest Rennyo. Even today, many of Awara's festivals and much of its culture have ties to long ago. Enjoy a stroll through town, taking in the historic atmosphere, or join a lively festival for an experience you won't have anywhere else — there are plenty of ways to encounter Awara City's traditional culture firsthand.

INFOMATION

01 Awara Onsen (p. 2)

The ryokan inns of Awara Onsen are known for their views of the beautiful countryside surroundings. The hot spring was originally discovered in 1883 when someone was digging a well in a rice field, and 80°C water began gushing out. Hot spring inns began to open the following year, and the area grew into a hot spring town. Today, there are 74 known source springs, and the hot spring town is divided into three areas, each with a shrine to protect that part of this hot spring town.
